CLIA - the California Lodging Industry Association welcomes any person teaching or enrolled in a California accredited two-year or four-year degree program specific to hospitality management. Faculty/student members shall receive all the privileges of regular membership except that they are not eligible to vote, hold elective office, or participate in CLIA's group discount programs. With membership, Faculty and Student members will receive

- California Lodging magazine, including the annual "Resource & Buyers' Guide."
- CLIA's legislative newsletter, Lobby.
- Access to the resources and information of the "Members Only" section of the CLIA Web site.
- Member pricing for CLIA events and promotional items.

... and the invaluable opportunity to network with seasoned independent lodging owners/operators!

Note: Membership dues are not deductible as charitable contributions, but may be deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. A portion of the dues, however, is not deductible as an ordinary and necessary expense to the extent that CLIA engages in lobbying. The non-deductible portion of dues for 2005-2006 is estimated to be 16 percent.
